A Lest Boy Found, Takes Care of and sent Home.

Officer Dolan informed a Light reporter of the following pathetic, though pretty story:
About 8 o'clook this morning the shows named officer saw a young boy of synite appearance, and evidently in childles ignorance of his condition, wandering round the Military phase, and evidently in childles ignorance of his condition, wandering round the Military phase, less young the boy who, his youthful and appealing fones, longest every burger driver to "take him home; he knew they wrink take him home; he was so tired, and tild not wish to waik." The officer gratty founded the lest off the force. The little boy second pleased, no doubt thinking some new toy was to be given him, and without resistance accompanied his protector. Doesn't then set a work and in a short time reut resistance accompanied his protector. It set then set t work and in a short time r urned the child to the arms of his tenril so considering mother.
